My shoe represents my journey through life and all its glories. The rainbow represents that all the mountains you come across there is always a way to get over or around them. The blue and yellow represent Godwin and how big of an impact it's had on me. I have met the best friends and people that I love on my journey through Godwin. The black is for the emptiness that can and will be filled in as my journey continues.

All the different colors are more for the purpose of how different and diverse everyone in my life is. We are all basically a huge cluster of colors that have affected my life. Some of my favorite memories have been with these crazy, fun and awesome people. My journey of life has been short for now but it will continue as my life is furthered. I can't wait to make more memories with the most important people in my life. That ends my story for now.....
