

Artist: JayLynn VerHulst

My pieces are a Jordan and a baby boot. I used Sharpie and pencil for my Jordan. For my boot, I used Sharpie, paint, and pencil. I was inspired by other stories of people who did their shoes. People are judged before they get to know each other. They might feel sad or depressed about themselves. Bullies don't truly know them.

I am not sure why I chose this topic but I did. I have had many challenges in my life but, I am trying to move beyond some of them and be the best me I can be!!! I have learned that you shouldn't judge people before you walk in their shoes.